

SVB's Saraswathi College of Education & Research, Dombivli (E)

National Constitution Day Celebration Report

Date: 25th November, 2023.

Today marks the celebration of National Constitution Day, commemorating the adoption of the Constitution of India. The event was organized with the aim of fostering a deeper understanding and appreciation of the constitutional values that underpin the nation. This year's celebration included a quiz competition and an expert talk focusing on Women's Rights in Indian Law. This event was organised by Prevention of Sexual Harassment committee and Women Development Cell of the college.

The event commenced with a ceremonial inauguration, emphasizing the significance of the Constitution in shaping the nation's destiny. Dignitaries and guests participated in the lighting of the lamp, symbolizing the enlightenment that comes from understanding our constitutional principles. Principal ma'am Dr.Mary Devakumar welcomed and felicitated to the respected resource person ADV.PRISCILLA SAMUEL NADAR by giving shawl and bouquet as a token of love. Afterwards MS Astha Yadav, S.Y.B.Ed.student share significance of the National Constitutional Day along with PPT presentation.

An insightful session unfolded with an expert talk on Women's Rights in Indian Law. Eminent legal scholar and High Court practitioner ADV.PRISCILLA SAMUEL NADAR discussed the evolution of women's rights, landmark judgments, and the on-going challenges faced by women in accessing justice. The talk aimed to empower the student teacher with knowledge and encourage a proactive approach towards gender equality.

A spirited quiz competition was organized, involving participants from F.Y.B.Ed.,S.Y.B.Ed. and students of ECCED. The questions spanned a range of constitutional topics, testing the participants' knowledge on fundamental rights, directive principles, and women's right in Indian law. The competition not only served as a platform for healthy competition but also as an educational tool, reinforcing constitutional awareness. The competition was conducted by a very dynamic personality and student beloved faculty, Mrs.Rosy James. E-certificate were generated and sent to all the participants of Quiz Competition.

