RAKHI CELEBRATION REPORT

Rakshabandhan, also known as Rakhi, is a cherished Hindu festival that celebrates the bond between brothers and sisters. It is a day when sisters tie a sacred thread (rakhi) around their brothers' wrists, symbolizing love, protection, and the promise of support. At SVB's Saraswathi College of education & Research, Dombivli, we believe in preserving and honouring cultural traditions, and thus, we organized a Rakhi Making Competition to commemorate this special day on 29th September,2023.

On the day of Rakshabandhan, the competition took place in the college lecture hall. Participants were given a specific time frame to create their rakhis. The atmosphere was filled with excitement as students meticulously crafted their designs, incorporating their own unique styles and creativity. The criteria of Rakhi Making Competition was Creativity (10 Marks), Eco-friendly Material /cost effective (10 Marks), Usability(10Marks) Neatness(10Marks).

A panel of judges, Rupali shinde, Akshada morye, SVB Pharmacy College consisting of faculty members, evaluated the rakhis based on creativity, Material eco-friendly/cost effective. Usability and Neatness. Each participant was given the opportunity to explain the significance of their rakhi design, adding a personal touch to their presentation.

S.Y.B.Ed. students welcome Principal Mam, judges and faculties. Astha Yadav (S.Y.B.Ed.) gave PPT presentation to convey the significance of the festival. The Judges inspected the Rakhi and Declare the winner as per criteria.

Sr.No.	Name of the student	Rank
1.	Namita Kanojiya	I
2.	Neetu Tiwari	II
3.	Deepti Upadhyay	III

The Rakhi Making Competition at our College was a heart-warming and culturally enriching event that celebrated the essence of Rakshabandhan. It succeeded in promoting tradition, nurturing creativity, and building strong bonds among our students. We look forward to continuing such traditions and fostering a sense of cultural awareness and unity within our college community in the future.

At the end of the programme Shikha Shukla (S.Y.B.Ed.) proposed the vote of thanks. The event concluded with the singing of the national anthem and group photos.

Gandhi Jayanti celebration Report

Date : 1st October, 2023.

On 1st October 2023 SVB's Saraswathi College of Education & Research, Dombivli celebrated Gandhi Jayanti with great enthusiasm and reverence. The event aimed to commemorate the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, the Father of the Nation, and promote his principles of truth, non-violence, and social harmony.

The celebration was meticulously planned and executed by the cultural Committee. The committee worked tirelessly to ensure the participation of students, faculty, and staff in various activities that reflected the spirit of Gandhian philosophy.

The event commenced with the lighting of the lamp and a brief overview of Mahatma Gandhi's life and contributions.

Students delivered insightful speeches highlighting the relevance of Gandhian principles in the contemporary world. Faculty members also shared their perspectives on the importance of incorporating Gandhi's teachings in education. A group of S.Y.B.Ed. students sang "Vaishnav Jan to tene kahiye" Bhajan. Asst. Prof. Rosy ma'am conducted a quiz on Gandhi's Educational thoughts.

In line with Gandhi's emphasis on cleanliness, a campus cleanliness drive was conducted, involving students and staff in maintaining a clean and green environment.

The Gandhi Jayanti celebration was a resounding success, fostering a sense of unity, peace, and social responsibility among the college community. The event not only paid homage to the great leader but also inspired everyone present to uphold the principles championed by Mahatma Gandhi in their personal and professional lives.

We express our gratitude to all participants, organizers, and contributors who made the celebration a memorable and meaningful experience.

Guru Purnima Celebration Report

Guru Purnima, also known as Vyasa Purnima, is a significant Hindu and Buddhist festival that pays tribute to spiritual gurus, teachers, and mentors. It falls on the full moon day (Purnima) in the Hindu month of Ashadha (June-July). The Guru Purnima celebration held at SVB's Saraswathi College Of Education & Research, Dombivli (E) on 3rd July, 2023.

The primary objective of the Guru Purnima celebration was to honour and express gratitude to our teachers, mentors, and guiding figures who have been instrumental in shaping our lives and imparting knowledge and wisdom.

The event began with a traditional ceremony, during which our beloved principal ma'am Dr.Mary Devakumar and Dr.Monita Gide ma'am, principal of Pharmacy college lit lamps and offered floral garlands to a portrait of goddess Saraswati, whose name is mentioned in the Vedas as the goddess of speech, learning and knowledge.

Dr.Monita Gide, Principal of Pharmacy College was invited to share her insights on the importance of the Guru-disciple relationship and the role of teachers in society.

Students from F.Y.B.Ed.prepared presentations to express their gratitude to their respective gurus. They shared heart-warming anecdotes, poems, and speeches, highlighting the impact their mentors had on their lives.

To add vibrancy to the celebration, cultural performances such as traditional dance were performed by Kareena Yadav, student of F.Y.B.Ed. Aastha recited a poem on Guru. Significance of Gurupurnima was shared through PPT presentation by Shikha Shukla.Jayshree Pawar gave a beautiful speech on teacher educators. A Beautiful song on teachers was sung by Aarti, Priya, Sushmita, Aiswarya, and Lalita. These performances portrayed the rich cultural heritage of our country and its interconnectedness with the Guru-shishya (teacher-student) tradition.

The Guru Purnima celebration at SVB's Saraswathi College of Education & Research, Dombivli (E) was a resounding success. It provided an opportunity for students to acknowledge the pivotal role teachers play in our lives and express our heartfelt gratitude to them. The event fostered a sense of unity, respect, and admiration for the guiding figures who have illuminated our paths with knowledge and wisdom.

We extend our sincerest thanks to Chief Guest of Celebration, all the participants, teachers, students who made this celebration memorable and meaningful. Their enthusiasm and active involvement contributed to the success of the event and showcased the importance of cherishing and nurturing the Guru-shishya relationship.
