

Report on Inter-Collegiate competition On “Innovation in interactive teaching”-2025

SVB's Saraswathi College of Education and Research organized 18 th State Level Annual Intercollegiate competition on “Innovation in interactive teaching” on 25/03/2025 under Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). The Student- teachers who are currently pursuing B.Ed were invited to participate in the competition from all over the state of Maharashtra Student teachers from in & around Thane District, Mumbai, belonging to University of Mumbai & SNDT Women's University had registered for the event.

We aim to empower our students - leaders to have a holistic view of education, to achieve the following objectives:

- Recognise their role and responsibility in their jobs and society at large.
- Gain the necessary technological skills to meet growing demand for change in the classroom.
- Grow as teachers with awareness and sensitivity.
- Encouraging social entrepreneurship amongst student - teachers.

The Programme began by the counter registration of the student teachers by 9:30am Student teachers from various colleges participated in the competition. Dr. Narendra Deshmukh, working at Home Bhabha Centre for Science Education Mumbai as Senior Scientific Officer and Dr. Rukmini Jamdar Associate Professor at Seva Sadan College of Education were invited as Judges of the competition. The stage program started by 11.00am with the lighting of lamp. Ms. Sanika Shedge Student of S.Y.B.Ed and Mrs. Vaishali Gaikwad Student of F.Y.B.Ed hosted the whole event. Dr. Hemlata Marathe Sadhya delivered the welcome address to the huge gathering of participants, students of F.Y.B.Ed and S.Y.B.Ed were present in the lecture hall. The judges were introduced to the audience by Dr. Rachana Patil and Dr. Kalpana Aurange. Judges were felicitated by Dr. Hemlata Marathe and Mrs. Rosy James by gifting them with Tulsi plant sapling and memento. General rules of the competition were stated by Mrs. Rosy James. A total of 10 participants in this grand event from 6 different colleges of Mumbai suburbs.

Competition Phase 1:-

The first phase of competition began by 11:30 am with the 5 participants presenting their lessons in complete competitive fervour in various subjects like mathematics, science, english. The participants were then provided with a lunch break of 30 minutes at 1.30 p.m .

Following a successful first phase, the Inter-Collegiate Innovative and Interactive Teaching Competition proceeded to its highly anticipated second phase. This segment focused on the sharing of experiences, expert insights from esteemed judges, result declaration, and a formal closing ceremony.

Competition Phase 2:

- The second phase commenced with participants sharing their experiences from the competition. This segment provided a valuable platform for educators to reflect on their innovative teaching methodologies, challenges encountered, and lessons learned.
- The sharing of experiences fostered a collaborative environment, allowing participants to exchange ideas and gain insights from their peers. This exchange highlighted the diverse approaches to interactive teaching and the continuous evolution of pedagogical practices.

Judges' Inputs:

- Esteemed judges, Dr. Narendra D. Deshmukh and Dr. Rukmini Jamdar, provided invaluable feedback and insights to the participants.
- Their expertise in education and pedagogy enriched the competition, offering constructive criticism and guidance on enhancing interactive teaching methods.
- Dr. Deshmukh and Dr. Jamdar emphasized the importance of student engagement, effective use of technology, and the creation of inclusive learning environments.

Declaration of Results and Prize Distribution:

Certificate Distribution:

Following the judges' inputs, participation certificates were distributed to all participants, acknowledging their dedication and contribution to the competition.

Results and Prize Distribution:

The highly anticipated results were then announced, recognizing the outstanding innovative teaching practices demonstrated by the participants. The winners were:

| Winners No. | Name of the Winners | College Name & Address |
|-------------|---------------------|------------------------|
|-------------|---------------------|------------------------|

| | | |
|---|----------------|--|
| 1 | Bhavika Chawla | Seva Sadan's College of Education Ulhasnagar |
| 2 | Shabana Shaikh | Devta College of Education Kalwa |
| 3 | Astha Singh | Guru Nanak's College of Education and Research Bhandup |
| 4 | Sagar Mahajan | STE's College of Education Shahpur |

Prizes were awarded to the winners, celebrating their achievements and encouraging continued innovation in teaching. The prize distribution was conducted in a very professional and organized manner.

Vote of Thanks:

- Drushte Musale delivered a heartfelt vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the participants, judges, organizers, and all those who contributed to the success of the competition.
- The vote of thanks acknowledged the collaborative effort and dedication that made the event a resounding success.

National Anthem:

- The competition concluded with the solemn rendition of the National Anthem, fostering a sense of national pride and unity.

Conclusion:

- The Inter-Collegiate Innovative and Interactive Teaching Competition was a resounding success, providing a platform for educators to showcase their innovative teaching methods and exchange valuable insights.
- The event fostered a spirit of collaboration and continuous improvement in pedagogical practices.
- The competition was a great success, and all attendees left with a greater knowledge of innovative teaching methods

