

SVB's Saraswathi College of Education & Research Dombivli (E)

Christmas Celebration Report

Date of Celebration: 24th December, 2024

Venue: College Auditorium

Organized By: F.Y.B.Ed 2024-2025 Batch

Attended By: ECCEd Students, Faculty, Staff,

Introduction

Christmas, a globally celebrated festival that commemorates the birth of Jesus Christ, was celebrated with great enthusiasm at college. The celebration brought together students, faculty, and staff, creating a warm, festive atmosphere on campus. The event was organized by the F.Y.B.Ed students and aimed to spread joy, harmony, and the spirit of giving among the college community.

Preparation and Decorations

In the weeks leading up to Christmas, students and faculty worked together to decorate the college auditorium. The black board is creatively decorated by students & other decoration too

Celebration Activities

1. Opening Ceremony, The celebration began with a welcome address by Hasti Gala & Partiksha Wakle , who wished everyone a Merry Christmas with creative Power point presentation and emphasized the importance of togetherness, kindness, and charity during the festive season.
2. Cultural Performances Students participated in of performance, including:
 - a. Christmas Carols: A choir sang by Jeni , Aprana, Partiksha & Balaabirami popular Christmas carols like "Jingle Bells," and "We Wish You a Merry Christmas," filling the room with festive cheer.
 - b. Dance: A solo dance performance done by Hasti Gala on Christmas tune.

3. Games and Activities Several fun-filled activities were organized by Jeni to engage students and faculty:

4. Vote of Thanks: BY Aprna

The Christmas celebration at SVB's Sarawathi College of education & Research College was a resounding success, with active participation from all sections of the college community. It was a day filled with joy, creativity, and reflection on the values of love, charity, and togetherness that Christmas represents. The event not only provided an opportunity for students to showcase their talents but also brought the college together to contribute to the welfare of those in need.

The event ended with a note of gratitude and best wishes for the New Year, leaving everyone with warm memories of a wonderful celebration.

Cultural Incharge
Dr. Rachana Patil

SVB's Saraswathi College of Education & Research,

Dombivli Report on Quiz and Elocution Competition

Date of Event: 15 & 20 February 2025

Venue: SVB'S Saraswathi College of Education and Research Lecture Hall

The Quiz and Elocution Competition was organized as part of Savindhan Gaurav Mahotsav to encourage intellectual engagement and public speaking skills among participants. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and other individuals, who competed in two distinct categories: the Quiz competition and the Elocution competition.

Quiz Competition

The Quiz competition aimed to test the participants' knowledge about constitution. The quiz was structured in multiple rounds, with increasing difficulty to challenge the participants' knowledge and quick thinking.

Highlights:

Number of Participants: All F.Y and S.Y Students

Format: Multiple rounds of questions with individual and team-based rounds.

Host: The quiz was moderated by Sanika Shedge (Student of Second Year).

Elocution Competition

The Elocution competition focused on enhancing public speaking skills, allowing participants to express their thoughts on given topics. The participants delivered speeches on pre-selected topics, as well as impromptu speaking in some cases.

Format: Participants were judged based on content, delivery, voice modulation, and clarity of expression.

Topics: 1. Fundamental Rights - The Heart of the Indian Constitution

2. The Preamble - India's Vision and Ideals

3. Freedom of Speech - Rights and Responsibilities

Judges: The panel of judges included Mrs. Rosy James and Dr.Kalpana Aurange (Faculty members)

Apart from this an Essay and Poster making competition was also organised.

Conclusion

The Competitions successfully achieved its goal of promoting intellectual development and effective communication. Participants showed great enthusiasm and dedication, and the event helped foster a spirit of healthy competition and learning.

In charge Teacher

Dr.Rachana Patil

SVB's Saraswathi College of Education & Research, Dombivli (E)

Report on Essay Writing Competition

In the spirit of celebrating Samvidhan Gaurav Mahotsav on 15th February 2025 our College organized an essay writing competition on Topic as follows:

1. Constitution of India –Backbone of democracy.
2. Environmental protection under the Indian Constitution.
3. Constitutional Provisions for Social Justice and Equity.

For the students of F.Y B.Ed and S.Y B.Ed students. The competition was organized under the surveillance of Dr. Rachana Mam. The main object of this competition was to encourage students to know about the constitution of India.

The duration of the competition was 45 min. It was started at 12.15 pm and ended up in 1.00 pm. All the students are actively participated in the competition with full enthusiasm. They share their respected opinion on the topic.

The competition was smoothly and successfully conducted with the cooperation and support of all the teachers.

SVB's Saraswathi College of Education & Research, Dombivli

Hindi Diwas Celebration

Report

14 September, 2024.

The Hindi Diwas Celebration was organised on 14th September, 2024 at SVB's Saraswathi College of Education & Research, The event was organized to honour our Hindi language.

The Hindi Diwas Celebration commenced at 11:00 a.m with a warm welcome to all the teachers and staff members. The program was organized in the College Lecture Hall and included the following highlights:

The event began with speech of Dr. Kalpana Aurange Ma'am. She delivered a whole hearted speech, about the importance of Hindi as a unifying force in India and its rich history and cultural significance

Then second year B.Ed student Sapna Harel explained the significance of the day and the importance of the language. Lastly student Varsha conducted very entertaining game related to Hindi Diwas. Everyone had a lot of fun.

Hindi Divas is celebrated on September 14 every year in India. It marks the adoption of Hindi as the official language of India by the Constituent Assembly in 1949. The day is celebrated to promote the use of Hindi language and to spread awareness about its rich history and cultural significance.

Cultural Incharge

Dr. Rachana Patil

SVB's Saraswathi College of Education & Research, Dombivili (E)

Report on National women's day & Holi celebration.

The Festival of colors holi was celebrated with great enthusiasm & joy at our college on 13th March 2025. also we celebrate international women's day on that day. every year we celebrate women's day on 8th march but due to some reason we celebrated on 13th March. The Event was organised by the cultural committee & witnessed active participation from students, faculty & staff.

The celebration began in the morning with formal welcome & all recited together our SNDT University song. This celebration anchoring was done by both Drushte Musale & Aparna Ingawale. Firstly PowerPoint presentation on women's day was done by Jeni Gangar & PowerPoint presentation on holi presented by Bala Abirami. After that one wonderful skit performance was given by S.Y.BEd students Sapna & Ranjana. Then all F.Y.BEd and S.Y.BEd students did activity of making greetings card for giving women's day wishes. We played holi with colors. We enjoyed very much. Lastly Pratiksha delivered vote of thanks.

This celebration provided an opportunity for students & faculty to enjoy & take a break from academic routine. The celebration will be cherished as a colorful & joyous memory by everyone who attended.

SVB's Saraswathi College of Education & Research
Dombivli

Independence day celebration Report

The 77th Independence Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm and patriotism at my College Saraswathi College of Education and Research on 15th August 2024. The event was organised in the college premises with students, faculty, member and staff participating actively to honour the sacrifice made from freedom fighter and celebrate the period of freedom.

A celebration began at 8 a.m with the arrival of the Chief guest Dr. Vikrant Tari, Principal of College and students warmly welcomed the guests. The national flag was hoisted by the chief guest, followed by the singing of the national anthem, which filled everyone with pride and respect for the nation. The cultural program started after the flag hoisting ceremony, it included

1. Patriotic songs. : the college students performed melodious patriotic song Vande Mataram and Ae watan Mere Watan Abad rahe tu.
2. Dance performances: a group of students presented a traditional folk dance, showcasing the unity in diversity of India
3. Drama: a short skit depicting the sacrifices of freedom fighters like Bhagat Singh, Rani Lakshmibai, and Mahatma Gandhi was performed by the drama club
4. Speech : students delivered inspiring speeches about the significance of Independence Day and the importance of youth in shaping the future of the nation.

Chief guest addressed the audience, emphasising the value of the freedom and urging students to contribute to the country's progress through education, innovation and service. He shared motivational anecdote that inspired everyone present their. As a part of celebration. The event concluded with a vote of thanks by the student who expressed gratitude to everyone involved in making the celebration of success. The program ended with the distribution of refreshment, living by everyone with a sense of pride and patriotism.

The Independence Day celebration at Saraswati College of Education was a memorable occasion, reminding everyone of duty towards the nation and the importance of unity and dedication in building better future.

Cultural Incharge

Dr. Rachana Patil

SVB'S SARASWATHI COLLEGE OF EDUCATION & RESEARCH,
DOMBIVLI (E)

INTERNATIONAL YOGA DAY REPORT

The International Yoga Day celebration took place on 22nd June, 2024. This year marks the 10th International Day of Yoga with the theme “Yoga for Self and Society.”

The venue selected for the Yoga Session was a spacious common Auditorium , accommodating a large number of participants.

The program aimed to promote the holistic benefits of yoga, create awareness about its practices, and encourage individuals to embrace a healthy and balanced lifestyle through regular yoga practice.

Objectives of the Yoga Session were as follows:

- Promote the physical, mental, and spiritual benefits of yoga.
- Provide practical guidance and instruction on various yoga techniques.
- Create awareness about the significance of International Yoga Day.
- Encourage participants to incorporate yoga into their daily routines.

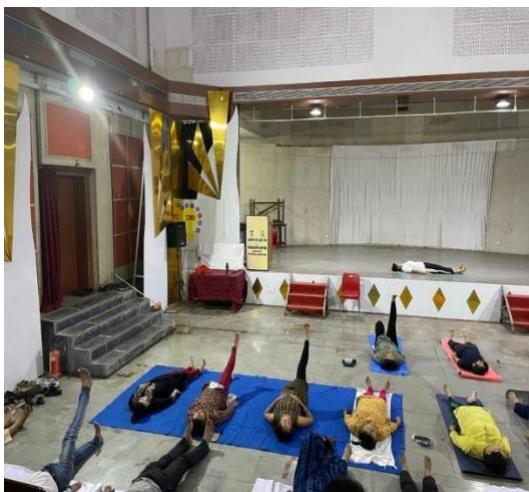

On 22nd June 2024 from 11.00 am – 01.00 pm Yoga Session was conducted. It was started with inaugural speech conveyed by Principal Dr.Mary Devakumar. Yoga Instructor, Mrs. Maya Nayak was introduced by Asst. Prof. Rosy James.

Mrs. Maya Nayak very well demonstrated and explained each and every Relaxation Technique, Pranayama (Breathing Exercises), Yoga Philosophy and Lifestyle with its health benefit.

The Yoga Session organized in celebration of International Yoga Day proved to be a resounding success. Participants were provided with a comprehensive understanding of yoga's physical and mental benefits, and they were inspired to incorporate yoga into their daily routines. The event served as a platform for fostering a sense of community and promoting the practice of yoga as a means to achieve a balanced and healthy lifestyle. By bringing people together and spreading awareness about the transformative power of yoga, the Session contributed to the overall well-being of the participants and reinforced the significance of International Yoga Day.

The Yoga Session was concluded with vote of thanks by Coordinator Dr.Rachana Patil.

Cultural In-charge

Dr. Rachana Patil

I/C Principal

Dr.Mary Devakumar

SVB's Saraswathi College of Education & Research, Dombivli (E)

Report on Maker Sankranti celebration

Yuvak Din, Also known as National Youth day, is celebrated in India on January 12th to commemorate the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda, a spiritual leader and Youth icon. Sankranti, on the other hand, is a festival celebrated across India to mark the transition of the sun to the zodiac sign of Makara (Capricorn). Combining these two celebrations SVB'S Saraswathi College of Education organized a special event to honor the youth and embrace the cultural significance of Sankranti.

The joint celebration of Yuvak Din and Sankranti aimed to inspire the youth with the ideals of Swami Vivekananda while also fostering a sense of cultural pride and unity among students, faculty and staff members.

The celebration began with a tribute to Swami Vivekananda, highlighting his teachings, philosophies and contribution to society by PPT presentation of Sanika Shegde S.Y. B. ed student. Drushte Musle F.Y.B.ed student delivered geographical significance of uttrayan with PPT presentation, recited quotes, and shared insights into the life and teaching of this revered figure, inspiring their peers to emulate his principles of service and selflessness.

Hasti Gala from F.Y.B.ED she play quiz to all. It was enjoyable and amazing quiz.

To embrace the festive spirit of Sankranti, traditional Haldi Kumkum were this activity brought joy and enthusiasm to the celebration, fostering a sense of camaraderie and festive cheer among participants.

The joint celebration of Yuvak Din and Sankranti at SVB's Saraswathi College of Education was a resounding success, blending elements of youth empowerment with cultural festivities. It provided a platform for students to reflect on the teachings of Swami Vivekananda, embrace their cultural heritage and forge bonds of friendship and unity.

Mrs. Rachana Patil.

Cultural In-charge

SVB'S Saraswati college of Education& Research Dombivali.

Report on Elocution Competition in College

Date: 27th February 2025

Event: Elocution Competition as part of Samvidhan Gaurav Mahotsav

Venue: SVB's Saraswathi College of Education & Research, Dombivali

Organized by: F.Y.B. Ed & S.Y.B. Ed Students 2024-2025

Introduction

As part of the Samvidhan Gaurav Mahotsav celebrations, an elocution competition was successfully organized on Thursday, 27th February 2025. The event aimed to foster awareness and understanding of the Indian Constitution among participants. The competition, conducted in English, saw enthusiastic participation from ten students who delivered insightful speeches on selected topics related to the Constitution.

Topics:

The following topics were chosen to provide a comprehensive view of fundamental constitutional principles:

1. Fundamental Rights - The Heart of the Indian Constitution
2. The Preamble - India's Vision and Ideals
3. Freedom of Speech - Rights and Responsibilities

Participants:

The competition featured the following participants:

- Sanika Shedge
- Sapna Harel
- Ronjana Roy
- Jeni Gangar
- Vaishali Gaikwad

- Pooja Prajapati
- Pratiksha
- Monali Wasnik
- Aparna Ingawale
- Abirami

Event Highlights

The competition commenced at 12:15 PM. Each participant delivered a well-researched and articulate speech, showcasing their understanding of the chosen topic. The presentations were engaging and demonstrated a deep appreciation for the constitutional values. The participants displayed excellent oratory skills, effectively conveying their thoughts and perspectives.

Results:

The judges evaluated the participants based on their content, delivery, and overall presentation. The results were as follows:

- First Prize: Sanika Shedge
- Second Prize: Sapna Harel
- Third Prize: Vaishali Gaikwad

Conclusion

The elocution competition was a resounding success, achieving its objective of promoting constitutional awareness. The participants demonstrated a commendable understanding of the Indian Constitution and its significance. The event provided a platform for students to express their views and engage in meaningful discussions about fundamental rights, ideals, and responsibilities. The successful organization of this competition reflects the dedication and commitment towards celebrating the Samvidhan Gaurav Mahotsav. The event concluded with the distribution of prizes and certificates to the winners and participants, respectively.

Dombivli, Maharashtra, India
203, Shankara Nagar Rd, Sonar Pada, Dombivli East,
Dombivli, Maharashtra 421203, India
Lat 19.19953° Long 73.104949°
22/02/25 12:48 PM GMT +05:30

SVB'S Saraswati college of Education& Research Dombivali.

Report on Shiv Jayanti Celebration in College

Date: 19th February 2025

Event: Shiv Jayanti Celebration

Venue: SVB's Saraswathi College Of Education & Research, Dombivali

Organized by: F.Y.B. Ed & S.Y.B. Ed Students 2024-2025

Introduction

Shiv Jayanti is an important festival celebrated in India, especially in the state of Maharashtra, to commemorate the birth of the great Maratha king, Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. The day is observed with great fervour and pride, honouring the valour, leadership, and contributions of Shivaji Maharaj to Indian history. It is celebrated annually on the 19th of February (the date of Shivaji Maharaj's birth) according to the Hindu lunar calendar.

Event Highlights

1. Anchoring:

The program was skillfully anchored by Aparna and Ronjana, who guided the audience through the sequence of events, ensuring smooth coordination and engagement.

2. Lamp Lighting Ceremony:

The celebration commenced with a traditional lamp-lighting ceremony performed by all the teachers. This ritual symbolized the illumination of wisdom and knowledge, values deeply associated with Shivaji Maharaj.

3. PPT Presentation:

A detailed PowerPoint presentation on the life and achievements of Shivaji Maharaj was presented by Hasti. The presentation included significant milestones of his reign, military strategies, and his role in establishing the Maratha Empire.

4. Photography:

Abirami and Jeni took charge of capturing the event's special moments through photography, ensuring that the memories of the celebration were well-documented.

5. Poem Recitation:

A group of S.Y.B.Ed students performed a heartfelt poem dedicated to Shivaji Maharaj, paying tribute to his courage, leadership, and vision. The recitation filled the atmosphere with admiration and respect for the great warrior.

6. Raj Mudra Demonstration:

Pratiksha demonstrated the historical significance of the Raj Mudra (Royal Seal) of Shivaji Maharaj, explaining its meaning and importance in his governance and administration.

7. Song Performance:

A patriotic song in honor of Shivaji Maharaj was beautifully performed by Pratiksha, Aparna, Jeni, and Sapna. Their melodious tribute added a sense of pride and devotion to the event.

8. Blackboard Decoration:

All participants contributed to decorating the blackboard with inspiring quotes, visuals, and messages related to Shivaji Maharaj's life and legacy, adding a creative touch to the celebration.

9. Rangoli Making:

A vibrant Rangoli was created at the entrance of the venue by all participants, symbolizing the grandeur and valor of Shivaji Maharaj. The colorful artwork added to the festive spirit of the occasion.

10. Event Report:

A detailed report summarizing the key activities and significance of Shiv Jayanti was presented by Vaishali. Her report encapsulated the essence of the celebration and its impact on the participants.

11. Vote of Thanks:

The event concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Jeni, who expressed gratitude to all the participants, teachers, and organizers for their contributions in making the celebration successful and memorable.

Conclusion

Shiv Jayanti is much more than just a celebration of Shivaji Maharaj's birth. It is a day to recognize the values and principles that he stood for, which continue to resonate in contemporary Indian society. The day serves as a reminder of his heroism, leadership, and the immense contributions he made to the Indian subcontinent's history. Through various festivities, rituals, and programs, people continue to honour his legacy, ensuring that his teachings and ideals are passed down to future generations. The collective efforts of all participants, including Aparna, Ronjana, Hasti, Abi, Jeni, Pratiksha, Sapna, Vaishali, and others, made this Shiv Jayanti celebration a memorable and meaningful event.

SVB's Saraswathi College of Education & Research, Dombivli (E)

SAMVIDHAN GAURAV MAHOTSAV

Essay Writing Competition

Samvidhan Gaurav Mahotsav is a celebration of the glorious seventy five years of the Constitution. In the spirit of celebrating Samvidhan Gaurav Mahotsav various activities and competitions were organized.

On 15th February 2025 our College organized an Essay writing competition for the students of F.Y B.Ed and S.Y B.Ed students.on following Topics:

1. Constitution of India –Backbone of democracy.
2. Environmental protection under the Indian Constitution.
3. Constitutional Provisions for Social Justice and Equity.

The competition was organized under the surveillance of Dr. Rachana Patil Mam. The main object of this competition was to encourage students to know about the Constitution of India.

The duration of the competition was 45 min. It was started at 12.15 pm and ended up in 1.00 pm. All the students are actively participated in the competition with full enthusiasm. They shared their respected opinion on the topic.

The competition was smoothly and successfully conducted with the cooperation and support of all the teachers.

Poster Making Competition

With reference to celebration of Samvidhan Gaurav Mahotsav, Saraswathi College of Education & Research has organized Poster Competition:

Topic for Poster Competition:

Women's Rights and Constitutional Provisions.

Poster making Competition was organized on 17th February 2025 with the aim of encouraging awareness and self reflection among our Futuristic Females.

The primary objective of organizing the Poster Making Competition on 'Women's Rights and Constitutional Provisions' were as follows:

Spreading Awareness: A poster visually communicates the rights provided by the Constitution in a simple, engaging and easy-to-understand manner.

Encouraging Women Empowerment: By showcasing success stories, inspirational quotes, and messages, the poster can inspire women to stand up for their rights.

Inspiring Social Change and Action: To advocate policies that promote gender equality and brings about a positive change.

The students were asked to prepare the posters showcasing their inner artist and creative talent. Whole event was organized in the lecture hall with active participation by the students.

Elocution Competition:

On 20th February 2025 our College organized an Elocution competition on following Topics:

1. Fundamental Rights – The Heart of the Indian Constitution
2. The Preamble – India's Vision and Ideals
3. Freedom of Speech – Rights and Responsibilities

Event was organized in the lecture hall with active participation of the students.

Event Highlights

The competition commenced at 12:15 PM. Each participant delivered a well-researched and articulate speech, showcasing their understanding of the chosen topic. The presentations were engaging and demonstrated a deep appreciation for the constitutional values. The participants displayed excellent oratory skills, effectively conveying their thoughts and perspectives.

Quiz Competition:

The Quiz competition aimed to test the participants' knowledge about constitution. The quiz was structured in multiple rounds, with increasing difficulty to challenge the participants' knowledge and quick thinking.

Highlights:

Number of Participants: All F.Y and S.Y Students

Format: Multiple rounds of questions with individual and team-based rounds.

Host: The quiz was moderated by Sanika Shedge (Student of Second Year).

Conclusion :

The Competitions successfully achieved its goal of promoting intellectual development and effective communication.

Participants showed great enthusiasm and dedication, and the event helped foster a spirit of healthy competition and learning.

Cultural Incharge.

I/C Principal

Dr. Rachana Patil

Savitribai Phule Jayanti Celebration Report

Date: 6th January 2025

Event: Savitribai Phule Jayanti Celebration

Venue: SVB's Saraswathi College Of Education & Research, Dombivli

Organized by: F.Y.B.Ed Students 2024-2025

Introduction

The celebration of Savitribai Phule Jayanti was held at [College Name] to honour the birth anniversary of one of the most pioneering social reformers and educators of India, Savitribai Phule. The event was organized by the F.Y.B.Ed Students with the aim of spreading awareness about her contributions to women's education and social reform.

Event Highlights

1. Inaugural Ceremony: The event began with a ceremonial lighting of the lamp followed by a tribute to Savitribai Phule. Students, faculty members, and staff members gathered in the college auditorium to pay homage to the great social reformer. A portrait of Savitribai Phule was placed at the centre of the stage, adorned with flowers.
2. Speech and Presentation: The program featured a brief introduction about Savitribai Phule's life, her struggle for women's education, and her role in abolishing untouchability by Jeni. The keynote speaker, Jeni highlighted the importance of her work in the context of contemporary society and how her vision continues to inspire countless individuals working toward social justice and empowerment.

A special Presentation & quiz on "The Role of Savitribai Phule in Shaping Modern Education for Women" was delivered by Jeni & Bala Abirami, a renowned academician and social activist. This emphasized the challenges faced by Savitribai during her time and how she defied social norms to establish the first school for girls in India, promoting literacy among women.

3. Cultural Program: To commemorate Savitribai Phule's legacy, a cultural program was organized by the students. The performances included:
 - a. Poetry Recitation: Aprana recited poems that focused on women's empowerment and education, inspired by Savitribai's work.

Key Takeaways

The Savitribai Phule Jayanti celebration was a great success in terms of spreading awareness about the role of education in empowering women and challenging societal norms. Students were encouraged to embrace the values of equality, education, and social justice that Savitribai Phule championed throughout her life.

The event served as a reminder of the need to continue fighting for equal rights and education for all, particularly for marginalized communities. It also reinforced the importance of supporting initiatives that uplift and empower women in every sphere of life.

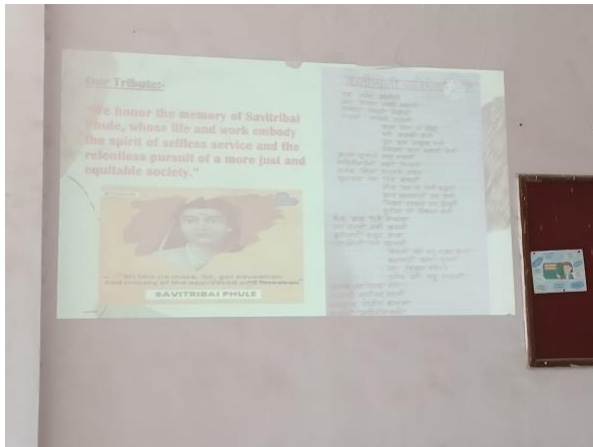

Vote of Thanks: By Partiksha

The Savitribai Phule Jayanti celebration at SVB's Saraswathi College Of Education & Research, Dombivali was a significant event that inspired students and faculty members alike. The program not only highlighted the importance of Savitribai Phule's contributions to education and social reform but also encouraged active participation in promoting social justice, equality, and women's rights. Through speeches, performances, and discussions, the event successfully kept her legacy alive and relevant in today's context.

Cultural Incharge

Dr. Rachana Patil

I / C Principal

Teacher's Day Celebration Report

6th September, 2024.

The Teacher's Day Celebration was organised on 6th September, 2024 at SVB's Saraswathi College of Education & Research, The event was organized to honour our dedicated teaching staff .

The Teacher's Day celebration commenced at 11:00 AM with a warm welcome to all the teachers and staff members. The program was organized in the College Lecture Hall and included the following highlights:

The event began with an inaugural ceremony where the college Asst.Prof Mrs. Rosy James Ma'am delivered a whole hearted speech, about the Institution and our President Sir Dr.R.Varadrajan by showing the video and acknowledging the hard work and commitment of our teaching staff.

S.Y.B.Ed. students showcased their talents through Speech. These performances were a token of appreciation and gratitude towards our teachers.

The session was dedicated to fostering student-teacher interactions, allowing students to express their feelings and appreciation for their teachers. This created an emotional bond between students and teachers. ECCEd students sung a beautiful song about teachers. Awesome Fun Games were conducted by S.Y.B.Ed. and lastly Namitha student of EccEd, gave a very creative PPT presentation about the role of the teacher in child development.

The Teacher's Day Celebration served as a platform to honour our dedicated teachers and equip them with valuable knowledge for nurturing young minds. We believe that these events will have a positive impact on the quality of education at our institution and reinforce the spirit of continuous learning and growth among our teaching staff.

Cultural Incharge.

I/C Principal

Dr. Rachana Patil

